There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the peace of their self-content;
There are souls like stars, that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran—
But let me live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Dedication

Friendship's like a garland
Twined with roses sweet;
Like a row of little lights
Twinkling down a street.
Friendship makes the common things,
Lovely as can be;
Makes just living more worthwhile
For friends like you and me.

MRS. LEONA DAILEY

"Friendship is a sheltering tree."

"A true friend is forever a friend."

"Friendship! mysterious cement of the soul,
Sweet'ner of life, and solder of society."

"And the fellowship of friends the best of all."

"We'll remember our dear Old Triangle."

WILLIAM F. McCONN

President

Last summer in a young people's convention, I heard a young man say that the thing which had impressed him most upon a recent visit to Marion College was the spirit of friendliness which he found so evident upon the campus. Marion College seeks to be Christian in principle and democratic in idealism both of which should give us a genuine interest in others. "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto but to minister and to give his life a ransom for many." He was always found contributing to human welfare, surely we should do no less.

What brings greater happiness than friendships? Nothing is more inspiring in the time of discouragement; more comforting in sorrow; more encouraging in defeat; more steadying in success than the presence of a friend who knows and understands.

Every year the Marion College circle of friendships widens. In this year's student body the span extends from Washington and California on the west to Georgia, the Carolinas and Virginia on the east. Among the alumni, from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian border to the Gulf are to be found those who call Marion College "Alma Mater." Also in China, India, Japan, Africa and the islands of the seas are those who carry sacred memories of the "Old Triangle."

God has been good to Marion College through the years in thus permitting her to serve so widely. With a steadfast faith in Him we turn our faces to the future expecting that the best days are yet to come.

Yours and His,
WM. F. McCONN.

Fellowship is communion in worship; partnership; companionship; friendly terms one with another; community interests.—Webster. With the rush that seems to be upon us, how these good qualities are apt to be crowded out of our lives. Fellowship with God is one of the strong compelling forces which has held us as a nation, as communities, as churches in the past. We are anxious that nothing should ever enter Marion College that would mar the splendid spirit of fellowship which exists among us. "Great men never criticize." Dale Carnegie. Let us strive to make 1938 one of the best.

JOHN WILLIAMS.

JUNIORS

The Class of '39 has had an active part in the activities of Marion College since entering in the fall of 1935. The school year 1937-38 has been no exception. Early in the year this class entertained the Freshmen at a picnic. On this occasion the new students were given a hearty welcome to participate in every phase of school life.

The class presented a chapel program on October 29, which featured two skits. The first showed the ideals and purpose the founders of Marion College had in mind in establishing a college here. The plans and procedure which were followed in constructing the gymnasium were explained in the second skit.

The Junior boys basketball team won the inter-class competition and several girls made favorable records on the College team.

On the evening of May 6 the Juniors sponsored a banquet in honor of the class of '38.

Members of the class are looking forward to making next year their best at M. C. They are determined to carry out their motto, "Build for character and not for fame."

The Sophomore Class though small in size has taken its place among the other classes in the school. Throughout the year loyalty and cooperation have characterized the class. Literary, musical, and scholastic ability together with cheerful smiles, words of advice, and Christian fellowship will not be forgotten by its members. The class motto is "Character the only True Diploma" and its colors "maroon and gold."

The class presented a chapel program in the form of a commencement exercise. While the school song was being played the class marched slowly to the platform. The ladies wore three cornered maroon scarfs on which the year "forty" was printed in gold letters. The young men wore small pocket handkerchiefs of the same design. Miss Lapham, the class sponsor, in cap and gown, awarded the diplomas. As each received his diploma he unrolled it and read before the audience a short striking quotation concerning the building of character.

The aim of each member of the class is to build into his life those things which will constantly make for sterling character.

MARIONETTE STAFF

The Marionette Staff is happy to present the 1938 Marionette to the student body and many friends of Marion College.

The theme for the book this year has been "friendship". The staff has endeavored to picture for you the attitude of friendship and good fellowship that exists on the campus, in every phase of school life; social, intellectual and spiritual.

There are those warm friendships between students, between students and faculty, between faculty members; and then, there are friendships with those inanimate things such as trees and books—but, the greatest friendship of all is that between man and God, the "friend that sticketh closer than a brother."

The attempt has been made to catch the spirit of this "friendship" and put it in permanent record, that, in future years you may glance through this 1938 Marionette and renew old friendships and also revive many memories of pleasant experiences on M. C. campus.

Rev. A. E. Beyler
College Pastor

At Commencement time old friends must part. In the new school year other friends are to be made and held, we trust as long as life shall last. This gives Marion College Church the exceptional opportunity for the making of many new friends from year to year.

To those of you who are leaving us we would say as pastor and in behalf of the Church that the songs, the prayers, the testimonies and above all, the lives of many of you have blest and inspired us to the living of better and nobler Christian lives.

And now, as you go on, the testing years ahead will reveal the greatness of your souls—just how well you have builded these last few years.

Because of our friendship and strong faith in you we expect to hear of your successes and triumphs again and again. Our church wants to be your friend down through the years, for in so doing we shall surely find ourselves numbered as friends of men and women of great achievement and of great blessing to the world.

A lady who is in the constant habit of giving away flowers from her garden is often heard to declare, "The flowers I give away never fade." No, for they remain forever in the remembrance of those who receive them, keeping their fragrance and color to the end.

As Church and Graduating Students let us continue to be friends, to love, to cherish, to pray for one another for in this "garden" are found blooming the fragrant and indestructible flowers that gladden the hearts of the living and prove to be worth far more than gold.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

STUDENT CONFERENCE

Though there are a number of organizations in Marion College that have as their purpose the promotion of Holiness standards and Christian living among the student body and faculty, the Student Conference is the largest. It is composed of all the students and faculty of Marion College.

Regular Tuesday evening services are held at 6:30 in the College Chapel. The time is devoted to prayer and praise and short messages from members of the student body or faculty.

For the year 1937-'38 Leland Wiley was elected president, Donald Fisher, vice-president, and Evangeline Smith, secretary-treasurer. There were four evangelists elected who supervise the work which the Conference carries on off the campus. Vivian Stanley has charge of services at the Emily E. Flinn Home, for elderly ladies; Herbert Logsdon takes a group to the Delta Electric Factory each Friday noon; Lester Buckman holds Sunday school at the Grant County Children's Some; and Ronald Jones has charge of the services at the County jail. Thursday evening devotionals in the dining hall are supervised by Evangeline Smith, while the noon prayer meetings are under the direction of Donald Fisher. The Lord has richly blessed the Conference this year in everything it has attempted to do.

New interest has been awakened and stimulated in the activities of the Senior Y. M. W. B. Under the able leadership of Professor Charles DeVol, returned missionary from China, the vision of every one has been broadened and a new zeal and hope has been realized.

Several activities have been carried on throughout the year. The first Sunday of each month is devoted to missions, acquainting the Y. M. W. B. with the needs of the mission fields. Also missions are stressed every Wednesday in the noon prayer meetings.

The convention which was held March 18-21, was a time of spiritual growth and uplift. Soul-stirring and challenging messages were brought by Dr. and Mrs. S. I. McMillen, who have spent several years in West Africa. The convention took on a new aspect as the medical slant of missions was given. Other speakers in the meeting were Dr. Ezra DeVol, who with his wife had planned to go to China last fall, but was prevented because of war, and Professor and Mrs. Charles DeVol.

For several years the Senior Y. M. W. B. has supported Reverend Frank Birch, but this year the support was transferred to Sterl and Marie Phinney, who are now laboring in Japan. The Phinneys are Marion College Graduates and went to the field last fall.

The W. Y. P. S. is the Young People's Society of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, but of course, in the College Church it consists of young people of several denominations since all the Christian students who desire may belong to this organization. The purpose of the W. Y. P. S. is twofold: first, to promote the Christian experience and holy character among the young people of the church; and second to train them for Christian service through the systematic study of the Word of God and properly directed activities. This organization has charge of the young people's services each Sunday evening at 6:30 except the one Sunday a month when the Y. M. W. B. has the service. At these services appropriate subjects such as, "Prayer" "Revival" and "Convictions" are discussed by various members of the organization.

A district rally was held here in the College chapel last fall. One of our own professors, Charles DeVol, a returned missionary from China, was the principal speaker.

A most profitable and inspiring convention of the Marion College Area was held in the Marion College Chapel, April 22, 23, 24. The scriptural foundation for the theme was found in Esther, "For such a time as this." The theme was "Youth Serving the Present Age." Rev. Roy S. Nicholson, Sunday School Secretary and Editor and an ardent young people's worker and friend, was the convention speaker.

Since the initiation of the Amphictyon Literary Society, Amphictyons have strived to attain several goals: first, the development of ability to appreciate and interpret good literature; second, the strengthening of physical and intellectual prowess, and third, the growth of spiritual understanding and belief.

Through the years the Society has held up a standard of spiritual depth and character which has benefited its members and helped them in developing a well rounded, useful life. Amphictyons have worked loyally in every challenge brought to them. They are well represented in all the organizations of the school and in the editorial staffs for Marion College publications. In the literary contests held in the spring it is recorded that members of the Amphictyon Society have won a large percentage of the prizes.

The "Amphic Ship", the emblem of the Society urges every member to "sail on". This emblem has influenced the themes for the open programs "Around the World with the Amphic Ship" and "A Trip through Life."

Amphics plan to uphold the standards and ideals of Marion College and do their part in promoting a greater maximum of success to the school and to their own members.

Onward to victory has been the cry of every member of the Eureka Literary Club the past year.

Truly they have been victorious. During the first term under the leadership of Weston Newton, president, and Ada Tuttle, Secretary, the Club received the application of sixty-six percent of the new students for membership. Hand in hand with this victory was the winning of the Marionette sales contest for the sixth consecutive year, which won for them the Marionette Staff award, the silver cup.

In the field of literature, the Eureka Literary Club has attained a marked degree of success. The first open program, "Poetic Memories" was devoted entirely to poetry. Others dealing with literature, music, art and philosophy, followed.

The ability of the Club was demonstrated by the fact that the Varsity Debate Squad for two consecutive years has been made up of Eurekans.

The leadership of the second and third terms was ably administered by Presidents Harland Ford and Ludlow Corbin and Secretaries Martha Simmons and Mary Evelyn Knepper.

Thus, the Eureka Literary Club marches on—ever forward and upward toward the high goal of success, endeavoring to make a greater contribution to its members and to Marion College.

GIRLS HIKING

THE INTER-SOCIETY COUNCIL

The Inter-Society Council is an organization including a faculty member, and three representatives of each of the two literary societies, Amphictyon and Eurekan. Each society president, by virtue of his office, is a member of the Council. The two other members are elected by their societies for a term of one school year.

For the year 1937-'38 the Amphictyon representatives have been Sherwood Eddy, president of the Amphictyon Society, Stanley Banker, and Violet Kercheval. The Eurekan representatives have been Weston Newton, president of the Eureka Club, L. H. Mayfield, and Woodrow Goodman. Professor Allen Bowman has acted as faculty adviser.

This year the officers of the Council have been L. H. Mayfield, president; Sherwood Eddy, vice-president; and Violet Kercheval, secretary-treasurer.

It is the duty of this organization to regulate all inter-society activities and business.

This group sponsors the Marionette sales contest in the fall, and the Literary contests in the spring. For the Literary Contests the Council secures the donors of the prizes and makes the rules and regulations. Prizes of $5.00 each are given to the people winning first place. Those winning second place in the contest are recognized at the commencement exercises by honorable mention.

GIRLS HIKING CLUB

There is no reward without work! The Hiking Club girls realize the true meaning of this statement because they have experienced miles of hiking in all sorts of weather; but this has been lots of fun and the girls are not sorry for the time and energy spent in this way.

School spirit has been greatly increased by various activities such as hikes and out-of-door breakfasts. The club also secured a ladies' quartet known as the "Sunshine Four" from Cincinnati, Ohio for a chapel program. An interesting contest was carried out this year to encourage the completion of the mileage quotas early in the season.

Awards were given in the form of a winged shoe with one bar for each year that the quota had been reached. The mileage quotas are 100 miles for the first year, 125 miles for the second year, 135 miles for the third year and 150 miles for the fourth year.

The club has a membership of over 40 which includes girls from almost every state represented on the campus. Each member has a great interest in the welfare of Marion College and the club has made a lasting contribution to our institution.

CURRENT HISTORY CLUB

With a membership of 35 the Current History Club has satisfactorily carried on activities to foster a more intimate relationship with the college, the community and other neighboring colleges, both within and outside the state.

Each month the club has presented a guest speaker from the city, or a representative of a kindred organization from some other school. Karl Zipf, president of "Les Politiques," Miami U., Oxford, Ohio and Howard Sollenberger, of Manchester College, were among the outstanding student speakers presented.

Probably the high light of the year fell on November 5 when the Current History Club was host to an invitational International Relations Convention. Fifty delegates attended the sessions, coming from Notre Dame U., Manchester College, Bluffton College, O., Franklin College, Earlham College, and Taylor U., as well as several high schools. Dr. E. J. Unruh, director of the Mid-West Council on International Relations, was the principal speaker.

Frequently student speakers from our own club appeared before the various civic organizations in the city and county.

The energies of the year's program have been bent toward making some permanent substantial contribution to the school life of Marion College.

M. C. SCIENCE CLUB

The students of Marion College have taken a keen interest in the sciences. The Science Club has sponsored several special exhibits and demonstrations to which the various Science classes or Clubs of High Schools of Grant County and neighboring counties have been invited.

One evening the Marion City High School met with us and a few weeks later our group met with them. At these special programs each department of science was represented. The Physics section demonstrated the formation of crystals in polarized light; the Chemistry section, methods of detecting arsenic poisoning; the Botany section had displays of ferns from many lands; Zoology section, had various types of fresh water and marine aquarium; and Physiology students demonstrated the beating of a heart in a live turtle.

The rock garden and sunken pool add much to the beauty of the campus and make the study of wild flowers and living things more fascinating.

Drs. Ezra DeVol and Sim McMillen who were here for the missionary convention March 18-20 gave interesting addresses and demonstrations to the science students.

New equipment has been added to all the departments. This has inspired greater interest and enthusiasm among those interested in scientific activities, consequently the year has been one of growth and development.

CHORUS

THE ORCHESTRA

Under the competent supervision of Fred Reiter, Grant County Band Director, and Keith Huffman, assistant director, the Marion College Orchestra made great progress during the past school year. Each Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 members of this organization could be seen going toward the chapel with their instruments. Overtures and Marches were practiced. Much time and effort was spent on the "Scarlet Mask."

The orchestration was much improved this year because of a greater variety of instruments. Among these were three clarinets, one alto horn, one saxaphone, three cornets, three trombones, one cello, and six violins.

Added interest was shown this year by the increase of ten members over last year's number.

Interesting chapel programs were presented during the year. These were well received by the student body.

Although not expressly sponsored by the orchestra several small bands and ensembles played for various banquets at Teter Hall. These groups instituted a new feature for Marion College, that of providing music at the several athletic events.

Mr. Reiter is to be highly commended for his fine work with the orchestra and his splendid cooperation in school activities.

MARION COLLEGE COMMUNITY CHORUS

The Marion College Community Chorus, consisting of a large group, 110 voices, presented appropriate portions of "The Messiah" by Handel during the Christmas season. The group gave a splendid rendition of the great oratorio at the U. S. Veterans' Hospital, in the College Chapel, and at the First Methodist Church. At Easter time the chorus presented "From Olivet to Calvary" by J. H. Maunder. This is an outstanding composition and is a favorite with many people of the community.

Professor Herman Baker, director of the Chorus spent much time and effort to produce the proficient and well-trained organization, and to inspire the group in the interpretation of the message of the composer. Because of the spiritual significance of the great masterpieces, the Chorus has been an inspiration and a blessing to the participants as well as to the school and surrounding communities.

The soloists, chosen from the voice department were: Sopranos, Ruthanna Thomas, and Norma Fite; Contraltos, Mary Evelyn Knepper, and Dorothy West; Tenors, Sheldon Jackson, and Thomas Russell; Basses, Robert Howlett, and Samuel Walter. Mrs. Gretchen Parker, pianist, and Mrs. Paul Dougherty, organist, accompanied the chorus.

DEBATE TEAM

MARION COLLEGE DEBATE TEAM

Marion College debaters for the current season had the most extensive debating program ever attempted by the present institution. The members of the Varsity teams, Leland Wiley and Woodrow Goodman, affirmative, and L. H. Mayfield and Weston Newton, negative, participated in eleven intercollegiate debates. Another organization, the "B" team, composed of Richard Alte and Harland Ford, affirmative, and Lester Buckman and Clinton Jones, negative, entered the Huntington tournament for six debates. Both teams have had a busy season and have been well repaid for their efforts.

The Anderson-Taylor-Marion triangular debate opened the season for the Varsity teams. The following week both teams went to Wabash to debate with Manchester college before the Linlawn and Wabash high schools. Later the debaters traveled to Huntington College where they met with a fine reception and left with both decisions. Also a few weeks later the affirmative teams of Marion and Goshen Colleges met in debate.

As a climax to the season's activities the teams entered the Manchester, Huntington debate tournament, where they made a record of which Marion College may justly be proud. Throughout the season the debaters did excellent work, having a percentage of .591, as compared with .500 in 1937, and .428 in 1936.

Back row: Wiley, Goodman, Buckman, Newton.

Top row: Prof. Lawrence, Hatton, Mayfield, Newton, Neff, Tuttle, Cole, Small, Turner.
Bottom Row: Goodman, Ford, Eddy, Wiley, Noggle, Jones, Alte, Buckman.

ATHENIAN FORENSIC CLUB

Debate activities of Marion College are sponsored by the Athenian Forensic Club. Although this is only the second year of its existence the organization has won recognition as one of the most active and progressive groups on the campus. The primary purpose of this organization is to direct intercollegiate debating.

The Athenian Forensic Club is unique in that it is the only organization charged with the duty of intercollegiate debates. Outstanding among the debates scheduled was the Anderson-Taylor-Marion triangular tournament held here.

Desiring to provide training for the future varsity teams, the club inaugurated this year a "B" debate squad. Members of these teams had the privilege of enriching their experience by participation in the "B" division of the N. Manchester tournament. With the cooperation of our "B" squad the future looks bright for debate in Marion College.

The Council of Cheerful Comrades, composed of the women of Teter Hall, find that through organization and association a better spirit of fellowship and unity is maintained. Under the leadership of the Dean of Women, they strive to uphold the spiritual as well as the social atmosphere, and regulate dormitory life and activities with Christian spirit.

The members of the council believe that God created each life for a high and holy purpose; and, that in faithful and conscientious performance of the daily tasks that come to their hands, shall they find the greatest usefulness and happiness. The girls desire to live an unselfish, serene, strong, and cheerful life.

The offices of this organization are President, Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, Social committee, Decorating committee, and House committee.

Meetings of the council are called by the President or Dean of Women at any time a need arises. The C. C. C.'s sponsor some outstanding social activities during the year, including the Christmas, Valentine, and Birthday dinners.

WOLVERINE CLUB

On the campus of Marion College we find a group of students from the state of Michigan. Although they are loyal to their own beautiful state with its many lakes and pine trees, the Wolverines have a worthwhile goal and purdesire to see those of other state clubs feel ously with the enriching and uplifting of their own lives in a Christian institution the people from Michigan have made an outstanding contribution to the school. They endeavor to uphold all ideals and standards of our college and to create a greater interest for the school in the state of Michigan.

Students from the Wolverine state are well represented in the organizations and extracurricular activities on the campus and join in helping Marion College put "first things first."

This year the club has been led by Eleanor Reynolds, president; Wanda Baker, vice-president; Florence Darnell, secretary-treasurer; and Professor Allen Bowman, faculty sponsor.

Friendliness and good fellowship mark the character of every member of this organization and spell a bright future for each one "Down on the Old Triangle" and in the home state.

Many new students from this northern state found their way to Marion College campus in response to the drive for membership in the Wolverine Club.

HOOSIER CLUB

The Hoosier Club feels that it can justly be proud of Marion College with her high standards and ideals. Indiana students welcome those from other parts of the country to share with them the opportunities of a Christian College. The Hoosiers desire to see those, of other state clubs, feel at home on their beautiful campus and join in making each year one of greater progress and success to the institution.

All Indiana, from the hills along the Ohio River to the Lake regions, is represented in the Hoosier Club. Since this is naturally the largest club, it has representatives in practically every activity of Marion College. Without members of the Hoosier Club in the student body, the halls of the school would be quite empty.

The Hoosier Club is especially interested in having the Marion High School graduates become students of Marion College. They established a new custom last year of sponsoring a special Marion High School day each year. At this time the club provides various entertainment, such as, baseball, tennis, and a special program after which refreshments are served and the High School students are shown through the buildings. This activity encourages interest and enthusiasm for Marion College. Thus, the Hoosiers make a worthy contribution to their Alma Mater.

DIXIE CLUB

Back row: Mayfield, Prof. Barrett, Newton, Prof. Lawrence, Hilson, Logsdon, Murphy.
Front row: F. Garrett, Bolen, H. Garrett, Waters, Major.

"In Dixie Land I'll take my stand to live and die in Dixie." This expresses the sentiments of all "Southern Colonels" and "Dixie Belles."

The membership of the club is made up of those students coming from states south of the Mason and Dixon line, namely, Virginia, Kentucky, the Carolinas, and Georgia.

This organization has for its purpose the upholding of the standards and ideals of Marion College and the furthering of its interests in the south. The club sponsors dinners, chapel programs, sports, and other functions.

The Dixies are justly proud of the personnel of the group—two "colonels" sing in the Varsity Quartet, four faculty members come from the south, James Bolen won the Tennis Championship, and almost all the club members serve in responsible positions in college organizations and gospel team work.

This organization has made a worthy contribution to Marion College and is endeavoring to spread her fame in the beautiful Southland.

WESTERNERS CLUB

From states west of Indiana and north of the Mason Dixon line come a spirited group of students and faculty members known as the Westerners. There are eight states represented this year—Illinois, Kansas, Colorado, South Dakota, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Washington.

For the year 1937-38 the Westerners brought from their states the largest percentage of increase in students, which won for them the shield. This encourages them to work even more diligently for the forwarding of Marion College in the Western states.

It is the purpose of the Westerners to promote the interests of Marion College in the west and also to exemplify western ideals within the school.

Members of this organization have been active in literary, athletic, musical and religious organizations.

The officers for this year were Robert Howlett, of Iowa, president; Clinton Jones, of Wisconsin, vice president; and Elvie Turner of South Dakota, secretary-treasurer. This club has done a great deal to broaden the interests of Marion College over a greater territory and thus make a worthy contribution to the school.

BUCKEYE CLUB

"Beautiful Ohio" is well represented on the campus of Marion College, having the largest foreign state representation in the school. The Buckeyes were the first to organize this type of club. Warm friendships among the students of the Buckeye state and the promotion of interests in Marion College have been outstanding contributions to this organization.

The Club has advanced under the capable leadership of Donald Fisher, President; Ludlow Corbin, Vice-president; Joy Miller, Secretary-treasurer; and Professors Kershner and DeVol as co-sponsors.

In the contest held in the fall among the state clubs for the securing of new students the Buckeyes won second place. It is the purpose of the club to reach a higher goal in membership for the coming year.

This year the club suffered the sudden loss of one of her newest members. Bertha Rosencrance, a freshman, of high scholastic ability, was instantly killed in an automobile accident. An effective memorial chapel service was held by members of the club.

During the spring term an interesting historical program was given celebrating the one hundred fiftieth year of the founding of Marietta, Ohio.

Students of the Buckeye Club have made a lasting contribution to the school and are looking eagerly to the future which holds much in store for them of success and happiness.

VARSITY QUARTETTE

Mayfield, Jackson, Bolen, Howlett.

The quartette was a "melting pot" of the west and south this year. The dusty west was represented by Mr. Jackson from Kansas, Mr. Howlett from Iowa. The sunny south gave us the other two smiling chaps—Mr. Bolen, North Carolina and Mr. Mayfield, South Carolina.

The quartette has had a successful year; all kinds of religious services were attended—conferences, state young peoples conventions, revival meetings, and regular church services. One of the outstanding contributions of the group this year was a revival meeting in which the boys were co-workers with Dr. W. C. McIntyre. This revival held at the Beulah M. B. C. Church was one of real inspiration and blessing. In addition to the various meetings the quartette has broadcast several times during the year.

This group has been putting out literature to quite a number of prospective students, as they go from place to place. In the past summer travels, it is estimated that about 75,000 people heard the boys "in person."

The quartette has been privileged to meet and work with outstanding evangelists such as, Dr. John L. Brasher, Dr. Joseph Owens, Dr. Paul Reese and Rev. Joseph H. Smith. They have also been co-laborers with many of the Wesleyan evangelists—Rev. C. I. Armstrong, Rev. C. W. Graves, Rev. Rollie Wise, and Rev. J. M. Hames.

The quartette is looking forward to a more extensive and inclusive program this summer than ever before.

The Marion College Choir was founded in the early spring of 1937 by Herman Baker, its present conductor and Director of the School of Music. The choir was organized following the year's activities of the College Community Chorus.

This group is now composed of 20 selected, well-trained voices, and is probably the most advanced vocal organization of its kind that has represented this institution in many years. Most of the singing is done "a Capella."

The Choir has sung for various types of services throughout the year. It broadcast over WOWO; sang for M. C. Harvest Day, M. C. Fall Revival, The Emily Flinn Home of Marion, the M. C. District Young People's Convention, and in the various church services throughout Indiana. The group has traveled quite extensively this Spring, holding services on Sunday afternoons and evenings.

The Choir has dedicated itself to the ministry of Sacred song, with the specific purpose of singing the vital message of the gospel. Backed by Christian experience in the lives of the singers, the hymns were interpreted in an expressive manner that touched the hearts of the hearers. The Choir has made a worthwhile and lasting contribution to Marion College.

MARION COLLEGE CHOIR

ALUMNI

Dr. Charles A. Priest
President of Alumni Association

We see new faces in our alumni. They are friendly faces, made so by home ties and by mingling with pleasing personalities at a College of Christian influence.

The Alumnus shall continue to look forward to the time when each year we have that glorious pleasure of meeting and having communion with such friends, along life's pathway.

When we meet those friends, we like to think of greeting people who's hearts are filled with gardens of flowers of human kindness that continue to bloom and become more fragrant as time unfolds the beauty and harmony of the souls within.

May the fragrance of such gardens permeate the lives and hearts of all who follow, that they may live in the Garden the Master has planned, where none can see other than beauty.

Very truly,

Dr. Charles A. Priest.

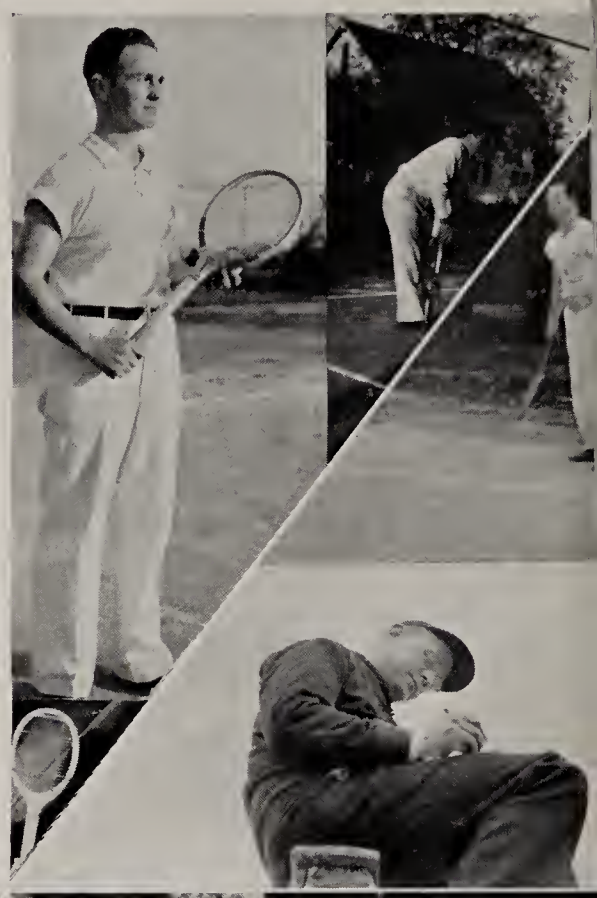
HOOSIE

The success of the 1937-38 athletic year has been due in a large measure to the efforts of Coach Ronald D. Jones. After finishing his B. S. in Ed. degree here in 1936, Jones attended one term at the State University where he majored in physical education. For the past two years he has served M. C. as athletic director, at the same time finishing his Theological degree. Mr. Jones makes clean sports a part of his religious life and inspires every student with his winning personality and fine spirit of sportsmanship.

The Men's Fall Tennis Tourney was won this year by Jim Bolen from the sunny South, defeating Dean Gregory in a close and hotly-contested match. The finals took on the aspect of an intersectional battle by bringing together the Dixie boy from North Carolina and the stocky western lad from the state of Washington. The tourney was marked by upsets, eliminating such seeded players as Jackson, Newton, and Clark and bringing to the top several new players. The Women's tourney remained at home again in the Hoosier Club when Dorothy West eliminated Ada Tuttle in the finals to be crowned tennis queen.



At right, Gregory gets his mouth set for an ace serve while Bolen is on his toes to return it. Newton watches intently and Tidball keeps score in mid-air. In the corners below are pictured the two champs, Bolen and West, trophies, racquets, smiles and all. Just before the final tilt the two enemies shake while Jackson and Newton console themselves with being eliminated. The courts have been moved to a new location to make room for the construction of the new church.

Starting the soft-ball season with a tremendous bang the boys trounced the faculty-alumni team 23-2 in the annual Harvest Day classic. In spite of Prof. Porter's splendid mound work, President McConn's spectacular fielding, and Dr. Barrett's mighty swing, the faculty was no match for their young opponents. Renewing the feud between the literary societies, the Amphics took advantage of a series of breaks and errors to win the first game 8-4. Whereupon the Eurekans, led by the towering Bob Moore, assumed the look of bulldog determination that you see in the picture and rallied behind the pitching arm of Clinton Jones to take the second game 7-4.

In the insets above we see the smiling victorious Amphic squad, bats, balls, gloves and all. The determined, hard-fighting Eureka men gather around their captain and assume that "do-or-die" look. Dr. Barrett slashes out a long one and Tidball stretches his 6 foot frame to reach it. President McConn, Eureka Hatton, and Amphic Kaufman show us some fancy fielding. Elliott gets set for the pitch, Turner runs after a hit, and Wilson slides. The last picture is two bats and a ball—or is it Reid's head?

At the right, Fisher opens his mouth and slips the pill across while Prof. Porter gets ready to swing. Tatsch gets off to a start after a hit while Reid watches the ball from the field. With Pettiford and Barrett as fillers the battling battalion of batters pose for the cameraman.

Coach Ronald Jones has inaugurated into the athletic program this year a class in tumbling, which has aroused much interest among the men. Loosening their muscle-bound joints the mentor mercilessly put the boys through formations of rolls, springs, and flips, and many were the groans of sore muscles and stiff joints. Instruction in the use of the flying rings and swinging bar also formed a part of the class work.

Gentlemen what beautiful feet you have! Bolen and Jackson display their awkwardness on the bar while Stan Banker elevates his No. 11's in the "neck-stand." No. it isn't a "gathering of the nuts", but it's a "bum" pyramid. Jim goes over the top and Giltner and LaGarde wrestle it out while the other boys do a little fancy muscle-stretching for fillers.

Recognizing the important place which physical development occupies in well-rounded school life, Coach Jones has instituted into the curriclulum an efficient and enjoyable program of physical training for both men and women. Calisthenics hold a very important place in the athletic program. The girls show the routine of muscle-stretching as done in classes. The command of "attention!" lines up the class and forms them into a human arch lined with smiles. Pyramid-building. Be careful Elsie, don't fall! Dottie is held in suspense. It may be art but it looks like a "dog-pile." During the spring rainy season the hardwood floor became swelled in places, so the entire floor was taken up and relaid six inches higher. New equipment is continually being added for the athletic program.

Following a plan of lively intra-mural competition, the basketball season furnished plenty of thrills and excitement. Emerging victorious in the class tournament were the Junior lads, who won the finals by defeating the Frosh boys 25-18 in a hard-fought game. In the intersociety schedule the Amphics won the trophy for the third consecutive year by winning two out of three games 31-21, 19-27, 22-20. The Hoosier team copied after their feminine colleagues and also won the state club championship by defeating the Westerners 35-9.

From left to right above are the Smiling Sophs, the Fighting Frosh, the Jolly Juniors, and the Snappy Seniors. In the insets Fisher does some fancy guarding while "dead-eye" Moore takes a bead on the basket and Bolen tries a one-hander. Wilson tries a free-throw and Coach Ronnie shows the boys how to handle the ball.

In a three game intersociety schedule the Eureka lassies made a clean sweep of the slate to win the society championship. Piloted by Lobdell, the Eurekas formed a smooth-working floor machine that subdued their rivals in straight games 42-8, 36-28, and 24-22. The Amphic girls, however, made them work for it by forcing them into an overtime period in the final game. The snappy Hoosier team won the state-club championship by trouncing the Buckeye lassies 31-11. In the College-Normal tilt, the degree girls nosed out their pedagogical-aspiring rivals in two thrilling games, 15-11 and 28-11.

But let's see who we have here. You're right, folks, at the top we find the champs, the Eureka lassies. Next come the Buckeye and the Amphics, and last but not least, the Hoosier girls. Note the smile of victory.

EUREK

Cyclist Price, Neff and Hatton race across the campus. Freshman Normals on picnic; the beauties almost hide the truck. Musical Martha on the campus. What a mess Shugart and what an effect acid odor has on the nostrils.

President Tatsch finds Eurekan Flag on wrong flag pole. Howlett harmonizes with unseen partner. Miss Ellingwood and Prof. Lawrence, our "model" campus couple. Who's going to be the best man Prof? Loyal Eurekan T. T. Smith buys a Marionette from salesmen Newton and Garrett. That expression looks natural Prof. Young. Don't be too hard on your Frosh prisoners, Judge Clark. Tew, Moore and Shugart shining sons in sunshine. Jane looks comfortable in library easy chair.

Better be careful Coleman, your girl is following you. Ada, Janet, and Sieb all seemed puzzled about Tippy's auto-glide. Registration day starts off new courses and brings in necessary money for the College. Mrs. Dailey dishes up delicious soup. Gretchen fills her corner well.

"Woody" concentrates on Physics in his study. Marion College "kids" at Teter Hall Party. Rosetta on Senior Normal Bus. Richard Alte, one of M. C.'s artists of ability. Miss Emerson smiling as usual.

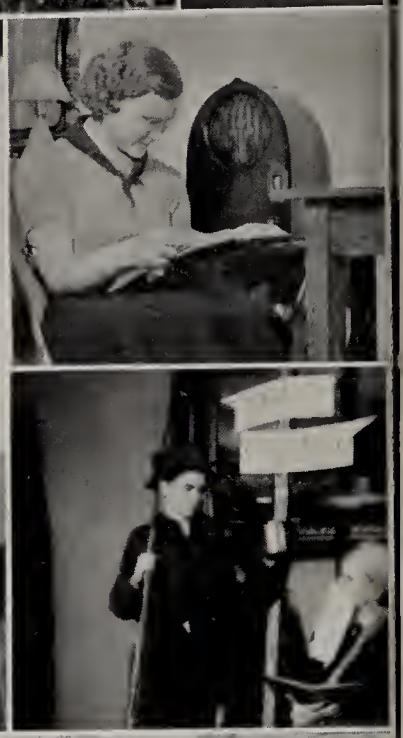
N. Y. A. students earn their money by gathering up leaves from campus. Soup day is busy day for waiters, Tatsch, Major, Minx and Banker. Williams busy studying in library (like all good boys should). Campus shrubbery in winter dress. Norma Fite smiles sweetly for the photographer. Dan sees that Fisher puts up the winter door correctly. Co-eds at rockgarden on "picture day."

M. C. students' families and friends make Marion College a busy place on Harvest Day. Loyal Amphics retouch Arch at point of triangle. Maynard McConn and Dorothy Mack together on Harvest Day. Miss Spark, our Dean of Women, seems much interested in something besides official duties. M. C. campus-coeds.

College personalities: Sammy Walters, organist; Bevan, Geyer, Horoho, luncheneers; Coleman and Helen, loving couple; Tommy Russell, personality; Blake and Neff, handsome couple; Dan, faithful fireman.

Tidball and Jones, hitchhikers. Dr. Unruh on Current History Program. Lucille pleased? Prof. Porter and "Frosh" math class. Beitler shoots Bales.

Christmas party waitresses. Santa Minx and his letter. Tippy and Tatsch pals. Easter pageant. Prof. "Sieb." Amphic Flag on top of Adm. building. Evelyn looks busy. Father Time and Barefoot Boy on Eureka program. Arbor Day, everybody plants a tree. More studious girls. Moore rates two girls. Joint "Lit" party guests. Father Walters and family.



CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

13-14—Registration (with various questions calling forth impromptu answers.)

15—Mr. Burton Burkette of Indianapolis demontstrated the Everett Orgatron, the electric organ which was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Williams.

16—Classes; conflicts; campus-capers.

17—All school receeption in dining hall. (Oh for an automatic hand shaker, but at least we've had a formal introduction.)

20—First rehearsal of the Community chorus was held under the direction of Professor Herman Baker.

21—Leland Wiley was elected president of the Student Conference.

22—The Athenian Forensic Club, under the leadership of Woodrow Goodman organized for the coming year.

23—"Senior Sneak." This year it was a trip to Chicago. It seemed flat tries were as inevitable as senior sneaks.

24—Artistic Amphics ambitiously painted the M. C. arch down on the old triangle.

25—E. A. Richardson, "Big Rich," poet-laureate of Indiana spoke before the student body. "Don't wrinkle your face and call it a grin, It looks bad enough the shape it's now in."

28—Degree sophomores and normal freshmen elected class officers.

29—Men's tennis tourney under way. Debate question arrived. A Student Council was discussed in chapel by Professor Bowman. "Around the world with the Amphic Ship." Remember how the waves kept rising and falling in spite of the efforts of 1st mate Minx?

31—State clubs organize.

OCTOBER

1—Class picnics were held at Deer Creek, Matter Park, and Wawanasia Glens. We noticed that a group of students arrived via parcel post. More fun.

3—Congratulations to Professor and Mrs. Siebert Kershner, on the arrival of a son, Charles Richard.

4—Kryl and his symphony orchestra, featuring Mary McCormick soprano, gave a concert at the Memorial Coliseum.

6—The Eureka literary club presented "Poetic Memories."

7—James Browning from London, England addressed the student body.

8—Mr. Beitler began taking club pictures for the Marionette. The snap editors were busy too. Watch out. One never knows when they're around.

11—Freshmen decided upon their choice of literary societies. "Which lit. did you join, Eureka?" "Nope, Amphictyon."

12—Current History Club presented Sergeant Bright, state policeman, who spoke on "Safety." (Now who was it wanted to know if the men or women caused more accidents?)

13—The Senior Normal class with their sponsor, Professor Kershner, made their annual nature study trip. This time they visited Culver Military Academy.

15—Reverend R. D. Wise of Wabash, Indiana was chapel speaker. The new students were received as full members into their respective societies at a Halloween party.

18—Alec Templeton, blind pianist, rendered a delightful concert at the First Methodist church.

20—Amphics and Eurekans held meetings to stimulate Marionette sales. All school "sing" in chapel.

21—Look, what was left on the door step! Twins! Their names? Eureka and Amphictyon! Yes, it is the opening day of the Marionette sales contest.

22—Harvest Day! (at last) classes dismissed. We hadn't enjoyed cleaning our rooms so much in a long time but everything must be in "apple pie" order. Our sympathy to Stanley Baker who has the scarlet fever.

25—Frosh donned their green caps with great delight. (no wonder, they swiped them from the sophomores).

26—The first number on the music lecture course was given by Mr. Edgar Raine on the subject "Alaska."

27—The Cox-Rushing Party gave musical selections in chapel.

28—"Remove your cap and proceed to sing the first verse of the school song." (More upperclassmen orders.) We think Johnny Neff should get a patent on his cap lifter.

29—M. C. delegates attended the physics meet at Purdue University. Juniors presented two skits interspersed with music for chapel program. A bus load of those green capped freshmen and a few upperclassmen visited the art galleries at Somerset.

30—Ghosts walked in the dormitory.

29-31—Men's Gospel Team made a week-end tour of the Bloomington district of the Kentucky conference.

NOVEMBER

1—First branch of the Marion Public Library was opened today at Marion College. Current History Club had charge of chapel.

3—Eureka Lit. held closed program "Musical Review."

5—Delegates from various colleges attended the International Relations convention at Marion College. Dr. E. J. Unruh, President of Mid-West Council on International Relations gave the chapel address.

7—Reverend Walter C. Graves, evangelist, of Los Angeles, California, opened the fall revival meetings.

8—Students and faculty expressed their sympathy to President McConn, whose father passed away today.

9—How "dreffu!" Our editor has the mumps.

11—Armistice Day.

12—Women finished tennis tourney. Dorothy West won over Ada Tuttle 5-7, 6-3, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3.

15—Date extended for the closing of the Marionette sales contest.

19—Our editor is out from the quarantine and back at work.

20—Harry Reid took a graceful fall on the ice then looked around to see if any one was watching.

21—Fall revival closed.

22—President McConn returned to resume his usual duties.

23—The initial program of the Marion College orchestra was given in chapel under the direction of Fred Reiter. Chevrolet safety film was shown in the library.

24—Science Club entertained Marion High School students.

25—Thanksgiving. And were we thankful for two days vacation!

26—Students left on the campus have heaps of fun playing games in the kitchen.

29—Just think, we started singing Christmas carols, and Thursday was Thanksgiving.

30—Professor Lawrence presented the Westerners Club with a well earned shield. Dorothy West and James Bolen received their tennis trophies. The Marionette contest closed with the Eurekans placing first.

DECEMBER

1—EXAMS To some it's real study,
To others it's cram
The question for me is
THAT TERM EXAM.
I. M. Hopeful.

5—Marion College Community Chorus presented Handel's "Messiah" at the U. S. Veterans Hospital.

6—Registration.

7—Miss Nellie Thum, a missionary candidate of the National Holiness Association was chapel speaker.

8—The "Messiah", was given in the college auditorium. Rev. John Woodhouse spoke on the subject "Barred Windows and Iron Doors."

9—Professor Zadok Arkush of New York rendered several enjoyable selections on the piano. M. C. Choir broadcasts over WOWO, Fort Wayne.

10—Miss Doris McCartney and Forest Conder discussed the Home Economics and 4-H club work.

12—Final presentation of the "Messiah" at the First Methodist Church.

15—The annual Christmas dinner is held at Teter Hall.

17—Mr. Clarence Betts, played the marimba, bells, vibraharp, mandolin, and musical saw. Christmas time is drawing near, so au revoir until next year!

JANUARY

2—Tragedy visited Marion College. Miss Bertha Rosencrance, B. S. in Ed., freshman, was killed in an auto collision.

3—Classes resumed.

4—Reverend Robert White, pastor of the Baptist Church, gave chapel address.

CALENDAR

5—Barton Recs Pogue gave a fascinating program consisting of his original selections of poetry.

6—Memorial service held in chapel for Bertha Rosencrance.

9—M. C. choir sang at the First Baptist Church.

11—The seniors marched stately into chapel wearing their brilliant, scarlet and gray jackets.

12—Eureka closed program. New president, Harland Ford. Dr. Merrill Davis spoke to the Science Club.

14—Through the Current History Club Mr. Karl Ziph of Miami University, spoke to us concerning America's foreign policy.

16—Marion College Choir sang at Montpelier.

18—Dr. Yeomans of the First Methodist Church was speaker in chapel.

19—Marion-Taylor-Anderson Triangular Debate. Marion successful.

21—Current Events test was given to the students and faculty by the Current History Club.

25—Rev. D. K. McColl, of the First Christian Church spoke in chapel. "Why Do Women Smoke?" — discussed by Mr. Virgil C. Finnell.

26—Amphics and Eurekans held closed meetings.

27—The winning teams in the Marionette contest were recompensed with a big chicken dinner.

28—Class parties. High School students from Sweetser, Sawyzee, and Gas City are entertained by the M. C. Science Club. Music Department has chapel.

FEBRUARY

1—Gina Vanna, lyric soprano, and Innis Bolognini, cellist give concert at the First Methodist Church.

2—Mrs. Carl Robinson, pianist, gave a fine program of musical selections. Dr. Nettie Powell discussed "Compatability, Courtship, and Marriage" before the ladies of Teter Hall.

3—Mrs. Ayres was serenaded with "Happy Birthday" during library hours and a group of her boys and girls treated her to ice-cream and cake in the evening.

4—"—to see ourselves as others see us." Freshman Normals imitate faculty in their program—"Smiles."

6—M. C. Choir rendered a program of musical selections at the First Christian Church.

7—A new librarian's desk was dedicated to the school by the Current History Club.

8—Professor Vess gave the first of his Biblical lectures on the subject "The Scientific Basis of Salvation."

9—Eureka open program "Poetic Memories."

11—Westerner's have chapel.

13—The M. C. Choir presented a program at the Emily Flinn home and also at LaFountaine.

14—Dan Cupid's busy day. The C. C. C.'s sponsored the annual Valentine Dinner in the dining-hall. Johnny Neff left to join the navy.

15—"Holy Boldness" is the subject of Prof. Vess's second lecture. The Parkinson ensemble, as a part of the Music-Lecture Course, demonstrated the progress of musical instruments through 6,000 years growth.

16—Professor Donald G. Gilley, Arthur Jordon Conservatory, presented a brilliant organ recital.

6—COMMENCEMENT

An Appreciation

Recognizing that the Publication of this Yearbook is financially impractical without the aid of advertisers, the Marionette Staff expresses their appreciation to the various parties who have cooperated in making the book possible.

We encourage patronage to these merchants.

SOUTH MARION

JANUARY:

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

FEBRUARY:

The heights by great men reached and kept,
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept
Were toiling upward in the night.

MARCH:

Like the howling winds are the ways of Fate,
As we journey on through life:
'Tis the set of the soul, that determines the goal,
And not the stress and the strife.

APRIL

Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Death in vain forbids Him rise;
Christ has opened Paradise.

MAY:

The noblest thoughts my soul can claim
The holiest words my tongue can frame,
Unworthy are to praise the name
The blessed name of Mother.

JUNE:

And what is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days;
Then, heaven tries earth if it be in tune,
And over it softly her warm ear lays;
Whether we look or whether we listen,
We hear life murmur, we see it glisten.

SUGGESTS A THOUGHT FOR

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

JULY:

Fadeless, like stars in the arching skies
In glory your stars shine on;
And Promise the Peace that ne'er shall cease
In the land by valor won.

AUGUST:

Tho days are hot and winds be warm
A lesson we may gain.
From fragrant flowers, whatever form,
And birds that love to sing.

SEPTEMBER:

Our life is a school of education
Each day we give a recitation
Death ends the term without vacation
Then comes the heart examination.

OCTOBER:

The year has lost its leaves again
The world looks old and grim;
God folds his robe of glory thus
That we may see but Him.

NOVEMBER:

Great God! we thank Thee for this home,
This bounteous birthland of the free,
For all in life that Thou dost give,
Thy love, it cares for even me.

DECEMBER:

O Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend on us, we pray:
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels, the great glad tidings tell
O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Professor—I say, your tubular air container has lost its rotundity.

Motorist—I don't quite—.

Professor—The cylindrical apparatus which supports your vehicle is no longer inflated.

Motorist—But—.

Professor—The elastic fabric surrounding the circular frame whose successive revolutions bear you onward in space has not retained its pristine roundness.

Small boy—Hey, mister, you got a flat tire.
